What did you like best about how the course was taught?

| The discussion style environment was interesting and stimulating. I liked that students were responsible for leading discussions, and that the content was diverse in terms of material. |
| I loved the discussion based format of the class! As a class we were able to learn about the role of identity in American politics and we were able to voice our opinions which increased what we learned about. Emily did a great job of respecting all opinions and making everyone feel comfortable in class. |
| Emily met students where they were at while also pushing them in a positive direction. She created a fun space to have substantive discussion and I enjoyed the topics we discussed. |
| Wonderful class. Great selection of topics and articles. Facilitated a meaningful conversation. I was NEVER bored in our 2.5 hour class. I was always excited to come to this class. |

If you were teaching this course, what would you do differently?

| I don't think that a Research methods prerequisite is necessary. |
| I love to participate, but I found it difficult for my voice to be heard. Maybe you can try to regulate the conversation by not letting certain student monopolize the time and over explain their thought (some people talked for minutes at a time). I would have been able to participate more if there would have been an atmosphere of back-and-forth. |
